MONEY MARKET.

Monday, Sept. 9-6 P. M.

There appears to have been a very general improvement in prices for stocks to day at both Boards. At the Old Board Long Island went up 1½ per cent; Canton, 1; Harlem, ½; Norwich and Worcester, 2½; Reading Railroad, ½; Erie Railroad, Ohio 6's, Stonington and Farmers' Loan closed firmat Saturday's prices. At the New Board Long Island advanced ½ per cent; Canton, 1; Harlem, ½; Norwich and Worcester, 2½; Farmers' ½; Mohawk closed very firm at prices ruling on Saturday.

A second dividend of five per cent will be paid to the stockholders of the Lafayette Bank of the city of New York, on the 30th Inst.

The Baltimore Money Market remains very easy. The banks of that city are discounting very liberally at five per cent fer paper having not more than four months to ar cent for paper naving not more than four months to acture, and six per cent for longer dates. We amnex a table showing the exports from this coun-cy to Great Britain for nine months, ending June 30, 843 It will be seen that our agricultural and other procis, more than overbalance the total amount of our from that country ; and that our foreign exports o Great Britain go to swell the balance of trade in our aver. This table will be very interesting to those who think that Great Britain takes nothing from us in ex-change for the manufactures we take from her subjects.

la 1341 the balance on the total importation and exper-tation was against the United States $6,094 374. In 1842 the belance was in our favor $4,529,447. In 1843 the be lance in our favor was still larger, reaching about $10,000,000. The annexed table shows what portion of our whole foreign trade is with Great Britain alone, independent of ner dependencies.

Of the imports from Great Britain for the past three years the largest portion are dutiable goods. The following table shows the proportion of free and dutiable goods imported in each year.

IMPORTS FROM GREAT BRITAIR. Compromise Tariff act of 1842.

1841. 1842. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1843. 1844. 1845

This is a very interesting table, and shows plainly the effect of the tariff on our importations from Great Britain. During the existence of the compromise act, particularly the last year, the importations were composed principally of dutiable goods—the value of those not paying duty not reaching three millions of dollars in an importation of more than thirty-four millions. In 1843, the first year of the present tariff act, the value of free goods imported greatly exceeded the value of those paying ad valurem or specific duties. Although the value of the imports from Great Britain in 1842 was more than twelve mi-lions of dollars less than in 1841, the falling off had no thing to do with the twiff, as the dutie's were lower in the year 1913 and the decline was confined principally to free goods, as seen in the above table. Our trade with Great Eritain hos, within a few years past, been of the most favorable nature so far as regards the interest of this country. In 1842 and for nine months ending June 30, 1843, the balance of the trade between the two countries has been in favor of the United States $17,457,714, after deducting from our total import from Great Britain mere ly the exports of domestic produce from the United States. The locality exports from this country to Great Britain have annually been quite large, which goes to swell the

It will be observed by the foregoing tables that the exports from the United States of goods, wares and merchandise, the growth and production of this country alone, have, for the past two years, raised a balance of trade in our favor of $17.457.714, while the actual balance in our favor for the same time on all our exports, both foreign and domestic, amounts to $22,590.834, of which $15,528.173 ac face of our commercial relations with nearly all foreign countries has become greatly changed. Sheep and Lambs—We quote the former at $1 50 a $4, and the latter $1 a $2.50—left over 200.

Hay—A moderate supply at 50 a 62c per cwt.

According to the Pottsville Journal of the 7th instant, the shipments last week show a considerable islling off from the previous week. The water continued low, and about 26 000 tens per week is about the limit for both canal and railroad, with the present number of boats and nal and railroad, with the present number of boats and coal cars.

The treights to Philadelphia have receded again to 80 cents, by canal. To New York $2.30. Toll and transportation by railroad $1.25 and $1.15.

The shipments for the week ending on the 24th ult. from the Lehigh region, amounted to 13.630 tons

Freights from Philadelphia to eastern ports remain with very little variation from last week's reports. Nearly all the coal is shipped from Richmond and the Schuylkill as fast as it arrives, and the demand is fully equal to the supply from all quarters

[Correspondence of the Herald.]

Philladelinia, Sept. 3, 1844

There was a grand row yesterday in the District of Moyamensing. A chap named George Holson, had been arrested for an assault upon an Irishman, and ordered to be committed to prison. This, of course, he did not like; and when a short distance from the Alderman's office, and a desperate attack upon the constable, who was roughly handled—finally, however, assistance was obtained, when the fellow was accurely caged. One thing roughly handled—finally, however, assistance was obtained, when the fellow was accurely caged. One thing is certain, the moral character of the constable was fully tried, for I do not ever remember having heard profane language used.

Sunders Gavit, constable of Second Ward, Kensington, has been arrested at the instance of an Irishman named McGinnis, charged with being engaged in the disturbances which took place in that District on the 7th of May last. An examination has been had before Alderman Boileau, who held Guvit to bail in $600 to answer. During the investigation, the counsel of Gavit, was also charged by the witness with being engaged in the riots, which Mr. O'Neil poslively denied, and pledged himself to prove the fellow guilty of perjury by Ald Perter, and others. McGinnis said Mr. John Painter requested him to make the charges alluded to.

A young man, named Parry, met with a serious accident yesterday, while gunning on the Schuylkill near the Fort. The gun exploded, and shattered is arm mach a dreadful manner, that it is feared amputation will be necessary.

Vesterday afternoon another shocking accident occurred at No. 12 Baker street, to Thomas Sayles, who was taking some powder from a horn, when it exploded, burning his clothes nearly off and injuring his person, ko.—At the time of the explosion he had a lighted segar in his mouth.

red at No. It Baker street, to Thomas Sayles, who was taking some powder from a horn, when it exploded, burning his clothes nearly off and injuring his person, &c.—at the time of the explosion he had a lighted segar in his meuth.

The number of interments in the city and liberties during the week ending on the 7th, was 167, of which It were from scarlet lever. Seventy-one of the number were children.

John Fow, a "native," has been arrested and held to bail by Alderman Repval Clark, of Kensington, on a charge of entering and burning the house of Patrick McGee, an individual who rendered himself conspicuous, it is alleged, in the deplorable scenes which took place in that district.

I shall to morrow, if possible, furnish the readers of the He ald, with some interesting facts connected with the late Episcopal Convention—the attack upon the pressuand the strange conduct of the Rev. Dr. Tyng, who was elected easistant Bishor! in this city, where the Herald circulates so extensively, I know they will create a sensat on and be widely read; and that too by the very men who attempted to assail the conduct and notives of the Herald and its proprietor. So look out for something rich! A real Ond-rdonker.

There will be quite a rush at our theatres to-night.—The Walhut opens with Forrest as Hamlet, and Mrs. Secton as Gertrude. At the Arch, Macready will also appears as Hamlet. Miss Charlotte Cushman as Gertrude, and Mrs. Surke as Ophelia. It will be seen who proves victorious, and enacts the character of Hamlet as Shakspeare originally intended.

The Chesnut has been leased by Lewis T. Pratt and Francis C. Wemyas, who will open the same in about a fortnight, with a talentes company.

The Olympic is doing a good business. The performances are of the highest order, and receive gre t applause. The brautiful act of Nathens, with little Kincade, is pronounced the most correct and daring performance ever witnessed.
